

Gibson to Seek New Term On Los Angeles Council

FILES AGAIN . . . Councilman John S. Gibson signs a declaration of intention to be a candidate for re-election as councilman of the 15th District. Accepting the declaration is Harold Jones, deputy in Charge of the Election Division of the City Clerk's Office.

John S. Gibson Jr., who has represented the 15th District as councilman since 1951, has filed his Declaration of Intention to seek another four-year term.

Gibson was among the first to declare his intention to run when the five-day declaration period opened today. Candidates for all municipal offices have until 5 p.m., Jan. 11 to file.

Gibson was first elected in 1951 to a two-year term and was re-elected in 1953 to the first four-year term. He was unopposed for re-election in 1957 and 1961.

Gibson's 14 years in council is the longest served since election by district began in 1925. Besides the longevity record, Gibson also is co-holder of the longest term served as head of the council.

He served as President for eight successive years. Only one other councilman has served that long. His terms were not consecutive.

Gibson and his wife, Mina, reside at 1604 Sunnyside Terrace, San Pedro. They have two daughters and 10 grandchildren.

Agents Honored In Sales Effort

Two local agents for the Pasadena regional office of Allstate Insurance Co. have received a special award for achievement in an annual sales contest. Honored were Walter Pazanowski and Walter Lindenmuth.

The six-week sales contest is held each fall to honor Judson B. Branch, president of the company.

Democrats to Meet Tonight

Members of the Democratic County Committee will hold a meeting tonight, 7:30, at the Torrance Labor Temple, 1316 Border Ave.

Reorganization of the Torrance Democratic Inc. Club will be discussed and new officers elected. Harold Garvin will conduct the meeting. All interested persons are welcome.

HONOR GUEST . . . Mayor Albert Isen, from left, attended the Jewish Federation's Southern Area Council community relations committee. Explaining the council's role in Torrance and other Southwest communities were Meyer Alper of Palos Verdes, board member and president of Temple Menorah; and Rabbi Paul Dubin, southern chairman.

New Carnegie Junior High Opens in Fall

The new Andrew Carnegie Junior High School, located at 21820 Bonita St., will open for classes in September, 1965.

The school is now being built on a 21-acre site by Crown Construction Co. under a contract for $3.3 million.

The school is expected to relieve steadily growing student bodies at Peary, White, and Wilmington Junior high schools.

Area Firm Opens New Apartments

Completion of the $1.5 million Lankershim Towers Apartments in North Hollywood will be highlighted by formal opening ceremonies this week, according to Victor Zaccagnin, president of CalProp Investments, Inc.

The southwest based firm will operate the complex of two- and three-story apartments. The contemporary buildings contain 133 units, and recreation facilities, and feature custom appointments.

CalProp Investments, Inc., is a privately owned firm specializing in construction and management of garden-type apartments. The firm's offices are located at 900 N. Sepulveda Blvd., El Segundo.
